Mining Training

A well-trained workforce is highly motivated and productive, with fewer accidents and greater ability to respond to change.

PMR Mining Training addresses the needs of all levels of mining personnel, helping employees do their jobs better: management, operators, and maintenance.

The result is better teamwork, increased morale, and greater productivity.

Customized training for your workforce

PMR offers a full suite of Miner Training classes. Our programs directly educate all levels of mining operations and are taught by qualified and experienced mining industry personnel. PMR helps your staff become more proficient, effective and efficient team members. The goals of these training programs are utilization of proper equipment and trained personnel to drive... Teamwork.
